2.4 Helpful tax provisions for nonprofits

COVID-19

Helpful tax provisions for nonprofits

- Section 2204. Allowance of partial above the line deduction for charitable contributions
 - The provision encourages Americans to contribute to churches and charitable organizations in 2020 by permitting them to deduct up to $300 of cash contributions, whether they itemize their deductions or not.

TexasAGM@artlife

2.5 Higher income/Corporate donations

Higher income/Corporate donations

- Section 2205. Modification of limitations on charitable contributions during 2020
 - The provision increases the limitations on deductions for charitable contributions by individuals who itemize, as well as corporations. For individuals, the 50-percent of adjusted gross income limitation is suspended for 2020. For corporations, the 10-percent limitation is increased to 25 percent of taxable income. This provision also increases the limitation on deductions for contributions of food inventory from 15 percent to 25 percent.

2.6 Employer assistance to students

Employer assistance to students

- Section 2206. Exclusion for certain employer payments of student loans
 - The provision enables employers to provide a student loan repayment benefit to employees on a tax-free basis. Under the provision, an employer may contribute up to $5,250 annually toward an employee's student loans, and such payment would be excluded from the employee's income. The $5,250 cap applies to both the new student loan repayment benefit as well as other educational assistance (e.g., tuition, fees, books) provided by the employer under current law. The provision applies to any student loan payments made by an employer on behalf of an employee after date of enactment and before January 1, 2021.

Texas A&M | geni.jp/c

2.7 Other attractive tax provisions

Other attractive tax provisions

- Section 2302. Delay of payment of employer payroll taxes
 - The provision allows employers and self-employed individuals to defer payment of the employer share of the Social Security tax they otherwise are responsible for paying to the federal government with respect to their employees. Employers generally are responsible for paying a 6.2-percent Social Security tax on employee wages. The provision requires that the deferred employment tax be paid over the following two years, with half of the amount required to be paid by December 31, 2021 and the other half by December 31, 2022. The Social Security Trust Funds will be held harmless under this provision.

10.9 Coronavirus Food Assistance Program

COVID-19

Coronavirus Food Assistance Program

On Friday, April 17, USDA announced the Coronavirus Food Assistance Program. It includes the following:

Direct Support to Farmers and Ranchers: The program will provide $16 billion in direct support based on actual losses for agricultural producers where prices and market supply chains have been impacted and will assist producers with additional adjustment and marketing costs resulting from lost demand and short-term oversupply for the 2020 marketing year caused by COVID-19. This $16 billion comes from the $9.5 billion in the CARES Act and $6.5 billion in existing Credit Commodity Corporation (CCC) funding.

Details to sign up will be forthcoming from USDA in early May. USDA is now preparing the regulations that will set forth on how assistance will be distributed to farmers and ranchers.
